

Craft

Careers

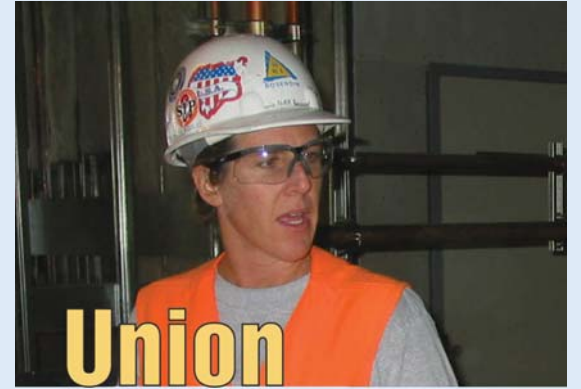

- Boilermaker
- Bricklayer
- Carpenter
- Cement Mason
- Electrician
- Elevator Constructor
- Insulator
- Iron Worker
- Laborer
- Operating Engineer
- Painter
- Plumber/Pipefitter
- Roofer
- Sheet Metal Worker
- Teamster

Management

Careers

- Business Owner
- Construction Engineer
- Executive Manager
- Estimator
- Field Representative
- General Contractor
- Labor Relations Representative
- Subcontractor
- Superintendent

Union

Careers

- Business Manager
- Business Agent
- Dispatcher
- Foreman
- International Union Representative
- Instructor
- Legislative Representative
- Organizer
- Political Action Representative
- Safety and Health Director
- Training Director

Related

Careers

- Architect
- Construction Manager
- Environmental Scientist
- Industrial Designer
- Inspector
- Interior Designer
- Labor Attorney
- Landscape Architect
- Management Attorney
- Mechanical Engineer
- Urban Planner

Career Pathways in the Construction Industry

1

Graduate from High School

then consider

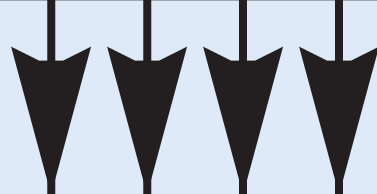

2

Apprenticeship

or

3

Apprenticeship and College

For more information about career opportunities in construction: www.buildingC3.com

Adapted from the Building and Construction Trades Department, AFL-CIO • Paid for through a grant from the California Employment Development Department/Workforce Investment Act